YES charging NIH awards permitted.

...travel...
CONTINUATION

No recipient grant.

Month of cancellation per funds is limited. Information to expeditiously provide carrier of COVID-19 to some NEA guidance, which include and/or may approvals. However, these issues may be charged to grants. Some grants whose funding (2) performance. We may not approve the advance of awards and/or the extension at that time. in NEA guidance (NEH) and/or permits. If you are extending your award, you may change the amounts budgeted or obligated for a project. Other unexpected delays may affect the completion of your project. Salaries, salaries, and/or expenses may be charged to grants.

At this time, the CDC, NOAA, NDI, the MDC, and the NRCS are waiving closure of Federal grant programs. We are waiving the following closure:

1. All grants that are due beyond May 30, 2020, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic will continue to meet terms of the award. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, we will provide additional time for:
   a. Submitting liquidation reports
   b. Submitting closeout reports

For Liquidation reports, we will provide an additional 60 days past the fiscal date to submit.

For Closeout reports, we will provide an additional 120 days past the fiscal date to submit.

In the absence of an extension, the award is considered closed on the date submitted. Late liquidation reports and closeout reports will be accepted. Any liquidation and closeout reports will be considered late and may be subject to liquidation and closeout. Any liquidation and closeout reports that are submitted within 30 days of the fiscal date will be reviewed to determine if the agency agrees to extend the period for reporting.

If we approve an extension, the award will remain open for an additional 30 days beyond the original liquidation date. If we do not approve an extension, the award will be closed. If the award is closed, the award will be liquidated and closedout.

In order to ensure that awards remain open for as long as possible, we encourage you to submit liquidation and closeout reports as soon as possible. Contact your Program Officer for more information.

We appreciate your patience and understanding during this unprecedented time.