

Household Moves

Section 1:

What you need to know:

- The Lump Sum Moving Allowance Option is still the preferred method for all moves;
- Only the Blanket Purchase Order (BPO) can be utilized for moves;
- Use the supplier Corporate Moving Services (Subcontractor of United Van Lines) when creating your order;
- Maximum weight of 16,000 pounds (including packing material)
- Reasonable packing charges and unpacking charges for up to 16,000 pounds
- Anything over 16,000 lbs. must be on a discretionary budget;
- One extra stop at origin or destination (within 35 miles of origin or destination
- Intrastate storage-in-transit (SIT) for 90 calendar days or less (exceptions may be authorized by the Washington State Office of Financial Management (OFM) prior to the move)
- Submit the order a minimum of 14 days prior to the actual move date to eliminate expedited move fees;
- The moving company will provide one estimate if the move is under 16,000 lbs. and two estimates if over; and
- Actual moving expenses may differ from the estimate provided by the supplier.
- Insurance coverage up to a maximum of $75,000 for Intrastate and $100,000 for Interstate and International Household goods moves
- Do not include any non-allowable items listed on the Allowable and Non-Allowable Items page.

- Receive the invoice in Ariba after it has been submitted
- The new hire will be billed by the supplier for any overages in moving costs not covered by the BPO

- The mover will ask the new hire to sign and date documents including:
 - Bill of Lading:
The bill of lading indicates the contractual provisions; all known charges, the preferred arrival date at the new hire's new location, and must indicate the empty (light) weight of the vehicle prior to loading the goods.
 - Inventory Sheet:
The inventory sheet identifies all of the new hire's goods being shipped and the true condition at time of loading. The new hire, or their designate, should be on site the entire time the goods are being packed and loaded. In case of loss or damage, the detailed accuracy of this inventory sheet will be important
 - Difficult Access Charge Sheet (optional):
The difficult access charge sheet or "accessorial charge

	sheet" describes additional costs incurred because the moving truck is prevented from getting near the home, or stairwells, alleys, elevators, or other obstacles that could slow or interfere with the packing and loading of the household items.
