

UW TRAVEL INFO MEETING | DELTA

AUGUST 18TH, 2026

DELTA PROUDLY PARTNERS WITH

BUSINESS TRAVELERS ARE OUR PRIORITY

It is our goal at Delta to create the best travel experience possible and offer valuable benefits to meet their needs

To be eligible for any Corporate Priority benefit, tickets must be purchased via authorized company channels and reflect the company's unique identifier, known as a Corporate Ticket Designator. Tickets purchased through any other ticketing source will not qualify. Customers traveling on qualifying tickets will receive tie-breaker prioritization over similarly-situated customers not traveling on qualifying tickets when being rebooked, assigned a boarding zone, waiting for a seat assignment on the Airport Standby List, or a SkyMiles Medallion Member who has requested an upgrade. Factors impacting placement on Rebooking, Boarding, or Standby Airport Priority Lists may include but are not limited to ticket value, frequent flyer status, and check-in time. These benefits do not guarantee receiving a seat assignment. Factors and formula for passenger prioritization, including factors used to identify similarly situated passengers, are confidential. Seat assignments and prioritization are in Delta's sole discretion. Benefits may be suspended without notice during irregular operations. All associated change fees apply. Offers subject to change without notice; other restrictions may apply. All SkyMiles rules apply. To review the rules, please visit delta.com/membersguide. Bonus miles do not count towards Medallion or Million Miler™ Status. Offers void where prohibited by law. Visit pro.delta.com/corporate for complete terms and conditions. ©2023 Delta Air Lines, Inc. 23-11-GS1525865

FLY SMARTER WITH FLY DELTA

App version 7.5 puts more power in your pocket

Did You Know?
